PLAINTIFFS' RESPONSE TO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE [ECF 18]

Plaintiff, Cowboys For Trump, LLC, hereby responds to the Court's Order to Show Cause concerning the response due to the Defendant's Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings [ECF 14]. Starting on October 1, 2020, Plaintiff's counsel, Colin L. Hunter, was to be out of the office for some period of time. On October 6, 2020, Plaintiff's co-counsel, Jordy L. Stern, communicated with Defendant's counsel regarding a fifteen-day extension of time to respond to the Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings. Please see Exhibit A attached. Defendant's counsel did not oppose the extension. Undersigned counsel, however, erred by not taking the additional step of seeking the Court's approval for the fifteen-day extension. Prior to October 16, 2020, the Court had not entered a scheduling order. The new due date, October 21, 2020, will not disturb the dates in the Court's Scheduling Order. No prejudice inures to the Defendant for this extension.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests the Court permit Plaintiff to file the Response on or before October 21, 2020. Plaintiff submits with this Response a proposed Order extending the deadline to October 21, 2020.

Respectfully submitted,

By: /s/ Jordy L. Stern

Mr. Stern,

We agree to your request for a 15-day extension to respond to the Secretary's Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings. We also have the deadline for your response calendared for today, October 6th.

While we are on the subject of deadlines, we have not received your clients' initial disclosures, which were due last Friday, October 2, 2020. Please let me know as soon as possible when you intend to get those to us.

Also, please confirm that you were able to access the Secretary's initial disclosures via the link and password that I sent to you last Friday. As I explained in my email, the link will expire on October 30, 2020.

Thank you,
